Regis Group Project Manager Claudia Barrientos named Vice President

Leesburg, VA, December 4, 2007 —Claudia Barrientos, Project Manager for The Regis Group, Inc. in Leesburg, VA, has been appointed a Vice President of the corporation, Regis Group President Marc Chinoy announced today.

“This is an important step for Regis,” said Chinoy. “Claudia is a considerable talent, and we all benefit daily from her thoughtful input.”

Claudia Barrientos joined The Regis Group, Inc., a consulting group of senior executives that specializes in Strategic Planning, Facilitation, Decision Support, and Marketing, in 2005. In her role as the Group’s Lead Client Contact and Client/Project Manager, Claudia is responsible for all Client-related Planning and Development documentation, and is the primary day-to-day (and frequently hour-to-hour) point of contact with the preponderance of Regis consulting clients.

Claudia graduated from The Catholic University of America in 2004 with a Bachelor’s degree in Political Science and a Minor in Philosophy. Prior to joining The Regis Group, Claudia worked as a Customer Relations Specialist at Ashburn Pediatrics.

Claudia is active in her Church where she plans to lead a group to raise awareness of world issues.
